

Grand Jury States Lead Detective Don Frye

1 There is another point where 2 you have a man of this caliber. As 3 you people know, there are some who 4 are sorry for what they did and 5 admit to wrong-doing. When they get 6 caught, they say, I'm sorry for it.
7 You feel somewhat compassion for them.
8 But, in Tommy Zeigler's case, he would 9 not admit to it, and he probably 10 never will. This is the kind of man
11 that is a real threat to society,
12 because he will probably do it again.
13 He has no soul, no conscience, and no
14 remorse whatsoever. Neither does his 15 mother.

16 JUROR: In your investigation, did you
17 uncover the fact where he tried to 18 kill Eunice earlier?

19 Frye - THE WITNESS: No. There is one occasion
20 when Tommy and his father were out
21 in the lake, and Tommy was trying 22 to drown him. The mother was 23 standing on the shore looking. Some 24 person came by and said what are you
25 doing. Tommy said, we are playing.
