

1 Q How did you happen to know Mr. Williams?

2 A Well, I knew him by when he was, you know,
3 working on houses, you know, like a mason, bring mason,
4 you know; builds houses and porches and things like that.

5 Q Were you ever out with your sister and him
6 when they were out anywhere?

7 A No.

8 Q Do you recall what Mr. Williams was wear-
9 ing the night you picked him up on December 24th, 1975?

10 A I can't think what he had on. I can't
11 think what he had; can't remember.

12 Q Where did you first see Mr. Williams that 13 night?

14 A Well, I seen him at the Kentucky Fried
15 Chicken. He was standing on the outside of the Kentucky
16 Fried Chicken. My sister and I drove up and was going
17 to get something to eat and he was standing on the out-
18 side.

19 So, I got out of the car, you know, just 20 going to see whether the Kentucky Fried still open, when

21 I got out of the car, you know, I reached for the door

22 but it had closed. Puts Ed Williams at KFC
at 9:00 PM using phone inside

23 He was standing there nervous like, shakin'

24 Really, I don't know what was wrong with him. Because it

25 scared me, you know. So he was -- my sister got out of